BOMBAY CASTLE,
9th September 1818.

W. NEWNHAM,
Sec. to Govt.

The Victory, Capt. Braithwaite anchored in the Harbour this morning, having left England the 24th May.—Passengers Messrs. Campbell,—Lyons,—Cavaye,—Brooks,—Lloyd,—Covin,—Spencer,—Athill, Cadets,—Mr. Rice,—Mr. and Mrs. Cooper.

This Ship has brought out only a very few letters; the Lonach, with the King's mails on board, we are informed, was to sail from the Downs the day after her.

The Castle Forbes and the Lady Lushington had sailed some days before the Victory.

The Hannah Capt. Heathorn arrived in England early in May.

We have not yet heard of any news brought out by this Ship, but we hope to receive some late English papers before our next regular publication.
